A Roadmap To Your Pet's Dental Health Central Veterinary Services Painful Bad breath mouth Do you think your pet has dental disease? Stained Infection teeth YES Book a pre-dental appointment with our veterinarians veterinarian determines that your pet has significant dental disease YES They will focus on A dental estimate is reviewed based on dental hygeine to the severity (Grade 1-4) of your pet's help your pet avoid dental disease and the amount of a dental procedure expected time it will take to extract painful and infected teeth What types The extractions of preventatives are completed during the exist? estimated timeframe NO YĖS Daily tooth Our veterinarian will call you to required to complete remaining extractions above and beyond Staged Dentals ensure patient safety by avoiding extensive anesthetic procedures We will continue to extract teeth The staged dental will be Your veterinarian will until the upper end of the booked in 4-8 weeks to guide you on how to timeframe is reached. Then, an ensure that prevent dental disease in updated estimate for x-rays/cleaning/blood the future EXTRACTIONS ONLY will be work are not repeated made based on the remaining teeth to be extracted